

As Countless As the Sands

1. As count-less as the sands up - on the might - y o - cean
2. Though there is found up - on the earth none right - eous, no — not
3. Be - hold, the Lamb sent forth by God to bear all sin — and 4. What joy! To know that God in Christ de - clared all sin - ners 5. For all the world God's ver - dict stands, for ev - 'ry tribe — and shore, So man - y souls on earth to - day, so man - y lived be - one, Though all have sinned and fall - en short in all that we have blame, Whose sin - less soul as - sumed the debt of ev - 'ry sin - ner's free! For with that bless - ed ver - dict comes great con - fi - dence for clan, For male and fe - male, slaye and free, for child and a - ged

4

8

fore; Each one was known to You, O Lord, each face, each voice, — each done, Yet in Your ten - der mer - cy and Your all - em - brac - ing shame, That all the world might be re - deemed from sin and death — and me. Though great my guilt and weak my works, that ver - dict stands — most man, For rich and poor, for black and white, for Gen - tile and — for

As Countless As the Sands

12

name; And in Your heart of hearts, O Lord, You loved each one— the same. love You sent Your Son, Your on - ly Son, to help us from a - bove. hell And have in - stead His right - eous-ness, and in His pre - sence dwell. sure: In Je - sus ALL are jus - ti - fied! In this I rest— se - cure.
Jew; God's "In - no - cent!" de - clares to all: The Sa - vior died— for you!